Porsche 911 (964) Carrera 4 Coupé – manual – Maritime Blue Metallic / Midnight Blue leather

For the true enthusiast: a particularly fine 964 Carrera 4 Coupé with the highly desirable manual gearbox. German delivered new, with only 3 owners and a well-documented maintenance history that confirms how carefully it has been looked after.

What makes this 964 even more special is its rare colour combination: Maritime Blue Metallic paired with a Midnight Blue leather interior. The car is also equipped with soft RAF leather and electric comfort seats, perfectly matching the character of this generation: pure and mechanical, yet stylishly comfortable.

Mechanically, it is in great shape as well:

- Major service carried out in November 2025
- New brake pads + discs + tyres since November 2024

The car will be inspected for sale and comes with 1-year warranty. In short: a 964 that's ready for carefree driving enjoyment, offering a truly unique piece of 911 history – in the right colour, with the right gearbox, and the right presence.
